Imagining a Better San Antonio

When you imagine San Antonio in the year 2030, what do you see? We see a vibrant, livable, high-performing city that attracts and retains businesses and workers.

We see people flowing out of their carbon neutral housing and into their carbon neutral workplaces on foot, bike, and in electric cars. We see a flourishing economic district driven by investments in efficient, local, and sustainable energy resources and smart water use. We see our grandchildren breathing cleaner air, having ample clean water to drink, and living better lives than we ever knew. With your support we believe that we can achieve this vision.

It’s a vision that is compelling, viable, and necessary for San Antonio to remain the city of choice for businesses and families. But we can’t achieve it without help from people like you, who are invested in creating this high-performing and livable District.

About the 2030 District

San Antonio’s 2030 District is a private-sector-led initiative intended to transform San Antonio’s urban core by supporting building owners and occupants in their efforts to reduce waste and increase building performance. By making a no-nonsense business case for efficient operations, the district is driving innovation through collaboration, leveraged financing, and shared resources.

Business leaders established the San Antonio district in 2015 with the goal to keep San Antonio competitive and ensure a resilient, vibrant city in 2030.

To do this, businesses have committed to reduce the downtown business district’s energy use, water use, and transportation-related carbon emissions and stormwater runoff by 50 percent by the year 2030 — all while stimulating economic growth and delivering bottom-line benefits.
