

CINCINNATI 2030 DISTRICT COMMUNITY PARTNER INFORMATION

About the District

THE CINCINNATI 2030 DISTRICT is a membership organization facilitated by Green Umbrella, the region's leading sustainability alliance. The District's mission is to create a network of healthy, high-performing buildings in the city of Cincinnati. Participating members make a collective commitment to reduce their buildings' energy use, water consumption and transportation emissions 50% by the year 2030.

By partnering directly with property owners and managers, developers, and commercial tenants, the Cincinnati 2030 District accelerates the development of healthy, high performing buildings by breaking down market barriers, encouraging collaboration and deploying innovative sustainability solutions.

The work of the Cincinnati 2030 District continues our city's leadership in urban sustainability while creating a more livable, resilient community that is better able to attract a high caliber workforce and new economic development opportunities.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS are non-profits, government entities or other organizations who commit to assisting members of the District achieve its energy, water, transportation and occupant health goals. Community Partner participation in the Cincinnati 2030 District is free.

CINCINNATI 2030 DISTRICT is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. For more information, please contact info@cincinnati2030.org or call 513.575.1000.
